From DCC Have your say on active travel in Denbighshire towns Denbighshire County Council is working with Sustrans Cymru as part of Welsh Government's Active Travel Network Map consultation (ATNM). It involves 11 towns Corwen being one of them

In this initial phase, the Council is looking for feedback on where residents would like to see improvements to walking and cycling in

The ATNM is a plan of routes the Council will use to inform where improvements to walking and cycling should be made within the county and it will help to make journeys on foot or by bike across Denbighshire easier and safer for everyone, particularly those who don't currently walk or cycle often and people who use mobility aids.
